For the State
Respondents :

Mr. S. Ghosh,
Learned Advocate.

For the Finance
Department

Mr. M.N. Roy,
Learned Advocate,

For the Pr. A.G.W.B. Mr. B. Mitra.

The matter is taken up by the Single Bench pursuant to the order contained in the Notification No. 638-WBAT/2J-15/2016 (Pt.- II) dated 23rd November, 2022 issued in exercise of the powers conferred under Section 5(6) of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985.

On consent of learned counsels for the contesting parties, the case is taken up for consideration sitting singly.

Mr. Roy, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the Finance Department submits that in the meanwhile the Finance Department has already framed the modus operandi and communicated to the MSME Department.

Mr. B. Mitra, learned departmental representative files a copy of their letter addressed to the MSME Deptt. dated 21.07.2023. It appears from this letter that the modus operandi finalised by the Finance Department has been communicated to the MSME Deptt. with the advice to re-submit the service book of the applicant along with all relevant pension papers and other details.

Representing the MSME Deptt, Mr. Ghosh, learned counsel submits that the process of submission of the proposal before the Principal Accountant General has already been initiated following the guideline framed by the Finance Department. He also submits that in completing the process, cooperation of the applicant may also be necessary.

Mr. Bhattacharjee, learned counsel appearing for the applicant submits that the respondents department may be directed to complete the process within a fortnight.

After hearing the submissions of the learned counsels and considering the fact that the revised pension proposal have to be submitted before the Principal Accountant General (A & E), this application is disposed of by directing the Respondent No. 2 (iv), Director, MSME to re-submit the pension proposals before the Principal Accountant General (A& E), W.B. within a period of three months from the date of communication of this order. In order to complete the proposal, the applicant is also directed to cooperate with the respondents by supplying relevant information and documents as asked for by the respondents.

Accordingly, the application is disposed of.
