ORDER SHEET WEST BENGAL ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNAL

Present-

The Hon'ble Justice Ranjit Kumar Bag & The Hon'ble Dr. Subesh Kumar Das

Case No - OA 983 OF 2016

Sudhangshu Bhowal $\[\underline{v}_s\]$ The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Date of order. 1 11 12.02.04.2019 For the Applicant : Mr. N.C. Mondal, Learned Advocate. For the Respondent : None. The applicant has prayed for direction upon the respondents for release of retirement benefits and arrears of pension along with interest @ 12% per annum. The contention of the applicant is that the applicant has already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant. The revised PPO was issued only when the applicant moved		T	0.66 for the Applicant : Mr. N.C. Mondal, Learned Advocate. For the Respondent : None. The applicant has prayed for direction upon the respondents for release of retirement benefits and arrears of pension along with interest @ 12% per annum. The contention of the applicant is that the applicant has already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.	Serial No. and	Order of the Tribunal with signature	Office action with date
11 102.04.2019 For the Applicant: Mr. N.C. Mondal, Learned Advocate. For the Respondent: None. The applicant has prayed for direction upon the respondents for release of retirement benefits and arrears of pension along with interest @ 12% per annum. The contention of the applicant is that the applicant has already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.	Date of order.	2	_
Learned Advocate. For the Respondent: None. The applicant has prayed for direction upon the respondents for release of retirement benefits and arrears of pension along with interest @ 12% per annum. The contention of the applicant is that the applicant has already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.	1
For the Respondent: None. The applicant has prayed for direction upon the respondents for release of retirement benefits and arrears of pension along with interest @ 12% per annum. The contention of the applicant is that the applicant has already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		For the Applicant : Mr. N.C. Mondal,
The applicant has prayed for direction upon the respondents for release of retirement benefits and arrears of pension along with interest @ 12% per annum. The contention of the applicant is that the applicant has already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the applicant.		Learned Advocate.
The applicant has prayed for direction upon the respondents for release of retirement benefits and arrears of pension along with interest @ 12% per annum. The contention of the applicant is that the applicant has already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.	02.04.2019	For the Respondent · None respondents for release of retirement benefits and arrears of pension along with interest @ 12% per annum. The contention of the applicant is that the applicant has already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		Tortho Respondent . Rene.
respondents for release of retirement benefits and arrears of pension along with interest @ 12% per annum. The contention of the applicant is that the applicant has already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.
The contention of the applicant is that the applicant has already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the applicant.		The applicant has prayed for direction upon the
The contention of the applicant is that the applicant has already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the applicant.		respondents for release of retirement benefits and arrears of
already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		pension along with interest @ 12% per annum.
already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.
already received pension, amount of GPF and all other retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		The contention of the applicant is that the applicant has retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241 days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.
days. It appears from the materials on record that the respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		already received pension, amount of GPF and all other respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		retirement benefits except leave salary for the period of 241
Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		days. It appears from the materials on record that the salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		respondent no. 5, Sub-Divisional Controller (Food & Supplies), granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		Jangipur initially issued the order for disbursement of leave approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		salary for 300 days, but subsequently modified the said order by retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		granting leave salary for 59 days. The applicant previously of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		approached this Tribunal praying for pension and other proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		retirement benefits as the pension and other retirement benefits against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		of the applicant were withheld due to pendency of the criminal direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		proceeding under section 125 of Code of Criminal Procedure pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.		against the applicant. On February 12, 2013 this Tribunal gave direction in OA-777 of 2011 for disbursement of the amount of The revised PPO was issued only when the applicant moved		pension and other retirement benefits in favour of the applicant.
		The revised PPO was issued only when the applicant moved

ORDER SHEET

Form No.		Sudhangshu Bhowal Vs. The State of West Bengal & Ors. contempt application being CCP-74 of 2013 which	ch was disposed of on November 13, 2013. However, the applic	cant approached the Hon'ble High Court against the order passed	by the Tribunal by filing WPST 69 of 2014. On March 10, 20	16, the Division
	Bench of the Hon'ble High Court disposed of W	PST 69 of 2014 by observing that if the petitioner is aggrieved for	or grant of leave salary for 59 days by the State, he is free to a	approach proper forum for redressal of his grievance. The approximation	pplicant did not approach the pension sanctioning authority for	r grant of leave salary for the balance period of 241 days	s by filing any application. Since the applicant has not approa	ched the proper forum for redressal of the grievance for not g	granting balance amount of leave salary by the State, we are not	t in a position to give any relief to the applicant in the instant appli	ication.
	Accordingly, the present application is	dismissed with liberty to the applicant to approach the pro-	oper forum for redressal of the grievance if the applicant is e	ntitled to higher amount of leave encashment.
	(S.K. DAS) MEMBER(A)	(R.K.BAG) MEMBER(J)

Sanjib